

Skating & Rinks

Lace'em up and get on the ice

Come discover the joys of one of Canada's oldest and most popular recreational activities. Whether it's a leisurely skate in the crisp winter air or a breakaway up the ice, Toronto's skating programs has something for everyone. Arenas and outdoor rinks across the city offer many leisure and instructional skating opportunities.

Announcements

Wondering if your local outdoor rink is open?

The extended season for 14 Outdoor Rinks was scheduled to begin on Saturday, November 19. The City has made every effort to open these rinks as scheduled. However, the unusually warm weather will delay the opening of almost all of the Outdoor Rinks.

Rink Closures

Bayview Arena has reopened after a natural gas explosion on October 25, 2013. All programming and permits have resumed. Please note, heating in the bleachers has not been restored. Staff are working to have this problem fixed, but it may take a couple of weeks. We appreciate your patience while we safely reopened this facility to the public.

The opening date for Chris Tonks arena is delayed to December 28 due to the flooding caused from the July 8 rain storm.
